Student Code of Conduct

The following Code of Conduct has been established to ensure the well-being, security and safety of you and your peers at EF. Besides abiding by all local, state, provincial and national laws, you are asked to abide by all EF rules; these include the rules of the EF host campus and host families. Violation of these rules will lead to disciplinary action at the discretion of the School Director. EF normally uses a progressive disciplinary system (verbal and written warnings) to allow students the opportunity to change their behavior and learn from their mistakes. In the circumstance of law-breaking, or serious behavior problems, or a threat to the safety of others, EF reserves the right to immediately revoke the student's visa, remove the student from the EF premises and recommend an immediate return to the student's home country.

1. Local, state, provincial and national laws.
You are legally governed by the laws of the country you are in. Neither EF nor your consulate can offer you free legal assistance or bail you out of jail. If you break any of these laws or any other laws of your host country, you may be arrested and risk immediate expulsion from the EF program.

We therefore ask you to please remember that it is illegal to:
• Buy, sell, possess or use any controlled or illegal drugs.
• Buy or drink alcohol below the legal age limit. (Age limits: Malta: 17; UK, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand, France, Spain, Italy, Germany, China, Ecuador, Costa Rica and Singapore: 18; Canada: 19; US and South Africa: 21.)
• Be under the influence of alcohol or drugs while driving a vehicle.
• Threaten, commit, or take part in any act of violence.
• Carry or own any weapons.
• Shoplift, or steal property.
• Vandalize or cause intentional damage to public or private property.

2. For students staying with host families:
Please show consideration, respect and understanding to your host family and remember to:
• Treat the members of your host family and their property with respect.
• Follow the rules asked of you by your host family.
• Contact an EF staff member if you wish to change accommodation.

3. For students staying in the EF Residence:
Please check with the school or Resident Advisor of specific regulations for your residence. However, please also remember to:
• Show respect and consideration to your roommates and fellow students.
• Follow the designated quiet hours.
• Maintain your room in a tidy and clean fashion.
• Allow designated EF staff members to enter your room in case of emergency, or in order to do maintenance. In non-emergencies EF will provide reasonable notice prior to entry wherever possible.
